

'JoJo's DreamCart' to begin filming Season 2 on Saturday

"JoJo's DreamCart," an Emmy-nominated, live-action TV Show for kids, will be filming the first show for Season 2 at the Somerville Community Access Television Station on Saturday, Feb. 16.

Host and creator of the show Joanne LaRicca, or JoJo, and her new cast will explore the ins and outs of creating special effects for movies. Joining them will be their dream expert and special effects artist Ben Chester, who is well known in the film industry for working on such projects as "Dr. Dolittle" and "Star Trek Voyager."

"JoJo's DreamCart" is currently airing on Rhode Island PBS Sundays at 11 a.m.
